

Professor Dave Castoldi

Will be in the San Francisco Bay Area teaching some

Knife Defense Clinics

He is a 10th degree Grand Master of Castoldi's Street Self Defense, 9th degree black belt in Kodokan Jujitsu, 7th degree black belt in Small Circle Jujitsu, 6th degree black belt in Jujitsu, 5th degree black belt in Judo, 2nd degree black belt in Karate & Kung Fu, and has studied many other martial arts. For three decades, Prof. Castoldi's school has been widely recognized as one of the top self defense schools within the national Jujitsu organization, Jujitsu America. The school has turned out many of the country's top Jujitsu technicians, several of whom now run the most highly regarded Jujitsu clubs in the nation. Professor Castoldi is an instructor to numerous law enforcement and correctional officers including local and state police, FBI, U.S. Marshall Service, U.S. Secret Service and the military police.

Professor Castoldi will be teaching clinics at various locations following the Jujitsu America Convention and will go into more detail than what was taught at the convention. This will be an opportunity to gain more in depth knowledge and further practice with Professor Castoldi. These clinics will also provide time toward rank and those ready can test for promotion in Castoldi Street Jujitsu.
